21 day devotional

belongchurch

Introduction

These next 21 days are an invitation. An invitation to build your faith, to believe again for the impossible, and to be reminded of who we serve. Not a distant God. Not a silent God. But the one true, living God who is able to do more than we can ask, dream, or imagine.

This devotional is a steady build. Day by day, we're leaning in and allowing God to grow our faith. We're choosing to believe again for the things people say could never happen. We're reminding ourselves that mountains still move when faith meets obedience.

Each day will include a challenge. Some will feel simple. Others will stretch you. These challenges are meant to move your faith from belief into action and to help you step out in obedience, even when it feels uncomfortable or unfamiliar.

This is more than hoping. We're tired of just hoping things would change. We're ready to believe. We're ready to trust God fully and expect the Holy Spirit to move like never before.

So take the step. Commit to the journey. Stay open. Stay expectant.

I'm believing with you.

Welcome to the journey of believing again.

- Pastor Frank

DAYS 1-7

WHO GOD IS

These first seven days are about re-centering our faith on who God is.

Before we believe for the impossible, we remind ourselves of the One we believe in.

Not a distant God.
Not a silent God.
But the living God who still moves and still responds.

*“Faith is seeing the invisible,
but not the nonexistent.”*

- A.W. Tozer

DAY 1 — THE LIVING GOD

Scripture

“But the Lord is the true God; He is the living God and the everlasting King.”

Jeremiah 10:10 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Before we talk about belief, let's settle this.

God is alive.

He is the living God.

He still moves. He still speaks. He still responds. He is still involved.

Many believe in God, but live like He is inactive. We pray out of habit, not expectation. Not because God has changed, but because our awareness has.

Faith does not begin with what you are believing for.

Faith begins with who you believe God is.

If God is alive, your prayers are not empty.

If God is alive, obedience matters.

If God is alive, nothing you face is beyond His reach.

This journey starts here.

Not with the miracle.

But with the realization that God is present and powerful right now.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Throughout the day, intentionally acknowledge God's presence. When you pray, do it with expectation, not routine. Speak to Him like He's actually with you, because He is.

DAY 2: GOD IS ABLE

Scripture

"But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

Hebrews 11:6 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

If God is alive, then this matters.

God is able.

Not barely able.

Not sometimes able.

Turn to whoever is closest to you and tell them, "God is able."

Most of us do not struggle with believing God exists. We struggle with believing He will move. We pray, but we pray safely. We believe, but we lower our expectations.

The issue has never been God's ability.

The issue is the limits we place on it.

Faith is not having all the answers.

Faith is believing God is who He says He is and can do what He says He can do.

If God is able, your prayers matter.

If God is able, obedience matters.

If God is able, the impossible is not off the table.

Believing again starts by removing the limits.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Be honest today. Where have you quietly decided God probably will not move? Identify one area where you have limited Him and bring it back before God with expectation.

DAY 3: NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

Scripture

"For with God nothing will be impossible."

Luke 1:37 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

At some point, belief has to collide with reality.

We all have categories. Possible. Unlikely. Impossible.
The problem is God never agreed with our categories.

What feels impossible to you is not intimidating to Him. Scripture does not say God does some things well. It says nothing is impossible with Him.

Impossible things expose our fear. They reveal our lack of control. They force us to admit that if God does not move, it will not happen.

That is the point.

Faith does not grow in safe spaces.

Faith grows when you trust God beyond what you can explain.

Impossible does not mean easy.

Impossible does not mean instant.

Impossible means it will require trust.

If God is alive and God is able, nothing is impossible.

Believing again means letting go of what you decided could never change.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Identify one thing you have labeled as impossible, write it down, say it out loud, bring it before God today, and choose to believe again even if you have no idea how it could happen.

DAY 4: GOD STILL MOVES

Scripture

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever."

Hebrews 13:8 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

One of the easiest lies we believe is that God moved back then, but not now. We read about miracles and healing and quietly place God in the past tense.

But God has not changed.

He has not lost power.

God still moves.

What usually changes is us. We stop looking. We stop expecting Him to interrupt ordinary moments. We explain things away instead of paying attention.

Faith sharpens your awareness.

When you believe God still moves, you start to notice Him. Doors open. Hearts shift. Moments stand out. Things you would have brushed past before start to feel intentional.

God does not move only in dramatic ways.

He moves in obedience.

He moves when faith responds.

If God is alive and God is able, He is active right now.

Believing again means paying attention.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Slow down today. Pay attention. Watch for where God may be moving or prompting you. Write it down and do not dismiss it.

DAY 5: GOD STILL SPEAKS

Scripture

"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me."
John 10:27 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

If God still moves, then He still speaks.

God has never been silent. We just get busy. Life gets loud. We scroll. We rush. We fill every quiet moment. And eventually, we stop listening.

But Jesus said His sheep hear His voice.
Not perfectly.
Not instantly.

But clearly enough to follow.

God speaks through His Word.
Through the Holy Spirit.
Through conviction and peace.

God is not hiding His voice.
He is inviting your attention.

Listening requires slowing down. Paying attention. Trusting what you hear. Faith grows when you stop rushing past what God is trying to say.

Believing again means learning to listen again.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Find a quiet moment today. Turn down the noise. Open Scripture slowly and listen. Write down what stands out.

DAY 6: FAITH RESPONDS

Scripture

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves."

James 1:22 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Listening to God matters. But listening by itself is not faith. Faith responds.

You can hear God and still stay stuck. Know what He is asking and wait until it feels safer or more convenient. But Scripture is clear. Hearing without responding only fools us.

Faith is not measured by what you know.
It is measured by what you do.

God usually does not give the whole picture. He gives a step and waits to see if we will take it. Obedience is where faith becomes real.

Delayed obedience is still disobedience.

Faith moves, even when it feels uncomfortable.

Every yes trains your heart. Small steps prepare you for bigger ones. Respond quickly and faith grows. Hesitate and fear gets louder.

Believing again means choosing response over hesitation.

Trust God enough to move, even when you do not have all the answers.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Pay attention to the first clear prompt you sense from the Holy Spirit today. Do not overthink it. Respond quickly, even if it feels small or uncomfortable.

DAY 7: TRUSTING WHO HE IS

Scripture

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding.”

Proverbs 3:5 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Trust is easy when things make sense.
It gets harder when they do not.

Most of us trust God until the path feels uncertain. We believe when it is clear, but when the outcome is unknown, we start grabbing for control. We try to figure it out. We wait until it feels safer to move.

But Scripture never calls us to trust God partially.
It calls us to trust Him fully.

Trust is not about understanding the process.
Trust is about believing in the character of God.

Trust does not need an explanation.
It requires surrender.

When you trust God, you release control. You stop demanding clarity before obedience. You rest in the truth that God sees what you cannot.

Trust anchors faith. Without it, belief becomes fragile. With it, faith stays steady, even when things shift.

Believing again means choosing trust over control.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

What is one area you have been holding back because you are waiting for perfect timing? Today, surrender it and trust Him. Walk it out.

DAYS 8-14

BELIEVING AGAIN

Belief was never meant to stay comfortable.

These next seven days are about responding to what you believe.

Faith begins to move.

Obedience starts to stretch.

This is where belief becomes action.

“Faith is not believing in spite of evidence.

Faith is obeying in spite of consequence.”

- Reinhard Bonnke

DAY 8: BELIEF DEMANDS A RESPONSE

Scripture

"But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves."

James 1:22 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Belief never stays neutral for long. Eventually, it asks something of you.

What you believe will either move you forward or expose where you are hesitating.

A lot of people believe in God, but fewer let belief shape their actions. We listen. We agree. We feel conviction. Then we wait until things feel clearer or safer.

But faith does not grow through delay.
Faith grows through response.

God often speaks quietly. A nudge. A thought. A sense to move. What happens next determines whether belief grows or stalls.

Faith is alive. And living things move.

Believing again often starts with one obedient step.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Ask the Holy Spirit one simple question today: What does my belief require of me right now? When the answer comes, respond to it without delay.

DAY 9: REMOVE THE LIMIT

Scripture

“Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us.”

Ephesians 3:20 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Most limits we place on God are never spoken.
They are assumed.

We believe God can move, just not there. We believe He can change things, just not that. Over time, disappointment lowers our expectations.

But God has not changed.

His power has not faded.

The limit is rarely God.

The limit is what we have agreed with.

Faith grows when we stop protecting ourselves from disappointment and start trusting God with the outcome. Removing limits is not demanding results. It is refusing to shrink God down to what feels safe.

Scripture says God can do more than we ask or think.

That is not poetry. That is who He is.

What you agree with shapes what you expect.

What you expect shapes how you pray.

Believing again starts by letting go of the limits you accepted.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Write down on this page one limit you have placed on God.

Scratch it out as an act of surrender. Say it out loud:

“God, I remove this limit.”

DAY 10: FAITH OVER COMFORT

Scripture

“For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.”

2 Timothy 1:7 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Faith and comfort do not grow together.

Comfort keeps things safe and predictable. And if we are honest, that is usually where belief stalls.

God does not call us to reckless faith, but He does call us past convenience. Comfort rarely requires trust.

Faith grows where comfort ends.

Most of the time, the Holy Spirit is not asking for something dramatic. He is asking for something stretching. Something that requires courage and reminds you that you are depending on God.

Fear is sneaky at times. We call hesitation wisdom. We call delay timing. But Scripture is clear. God has given us power, not fear.

Faith does not wait to feel ready.

Faith moves when God speaks.

Believing again means choosing obedience over ease.

Growth costs something.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Today, do the thing the Holy Spirit has been nudging you toward, stop negotiating with it, and step out in faith.

DAY 11: SAY YES BEFORE THE PLAN

Scripture

“By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.”

Hebrews 11:8 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

God rarely gives the full plan before asking for obedience.

We want clarity. Details. Assurance. But faith does not wait for everything to make sense. Faith responds when God speaks, even when the path is unclear.

There is something God has placed in you. A dream. A direction. A burden that keeps coming back. You may not know how it will happen or when, but you know it did not come from you.

That is where faith begins.

Faith says yes before the plan is clear.

Abraham did not get a map. He got a call. And his obedience unlocked God's promises. God is not asking you to figure it all out. He is asking you to take the next step.

Waiting for certainty often keeps us stuck. Obedience rarely comes with guarantees. It comes with trust.

Faith moves without full clarity.

Believing again means choosing obedience anyway.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

There is something God has been calling you toward even without the full plan, say yes to it today and take one intentional step forward in obedience.

DAY 12: STAY IN IT

Scripture

"Let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart."

Galatians 6:9 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Starting in faith is one thing.

Staying faithful is another.

A lot of people obey once and expect everything to change fast. When it does not, discouragement creeps in. Momentum slows. Obedience turns into frustration.

But faith is not proven by how you start.

Faith is revealed by how you stay.

God often uses time to deepen trust. Delay does not mean God has stopped moving. It means He is still working.

Faith does not quit when progress feels slow.

It stays obedient, even when results are not obvious.

Many mistake delay for denial. But Scripture reminds us that fruit comes in its season.

Believing again means choosing obedience again tomorrow.

Faith that stays produces fruit.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Identify one area where you have wanted to give up. Choose obedience today. Do not quit early. Keep moving forward in faith.

DAY 13: FAITH THAT MOVES TOWARD OTHERS

Scripture

“Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.”

Philippians 2:4 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Faith was never meant to stop with you.

When belief is growing, it moves beyond your own needs. Real faith lifts your eyes and pulls your focus outward.

God invites us to believe not only for ourselves, but for others. When you step into someone else's situation with prayer, compassion, or generosity, your faith stretches.

Faith that stays inward stays small.

Faith that moves outward grows.

This is where belief becomes generous. It costs time and attention, but it aligns your heart with the heart of God.

You do not need all the answers or perfect words. Faith requires willingness, not perfection.

When you move toward others in faith, God works in you too.

Believing again means trusting that God can use you in someone else's story.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Do something today that blesses someone else. Encourage them. Serve them. Give. Pray. Let it cost you something meaningful.

DAY 14: PRAY LIKE YOU BELIEVE

Scripture

"And whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."
Matthew 21:22 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

The way you pray shows what you really believe.

A lot of prayers play it safe. We ask carefully. We stay general. Not because God is small, but because we are managing disappointment. We pray with one foot on the brake.

But prayer was never meant to sound like doubt.

Prayer is bold conversation with a powerful God.

When you believe God is able, your prayers change. They get specific. They get confident. They sound like expectation, not hesitation.

Faith does not whisper. It speaks up.

Bold prayer is not about demanding outcomes. It is about trusting God enough to say what you are actually believing Him for. God is not bothered by bold faith. He is honored by it.

Believing again means praying like God is who He says He is.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Pray out loud today for something that feels impossible.
No safe prayers. No watered-down faith.
Say what you are really believing God for!

DAYS 15 - 21

BELIEVING FOR THE IMPOSSIBLE

This is where faith risks obedience and trusts Jesus fully.

Faith that risks. Faith that moves.

“The greatest tragedy in life is not unanswered prayer,
but unoffered prayer.”

- Mark Batterson

DAY 15: STEP OUT OF THE BOAT

Scripture

“And Peter answered Him and said, ‘Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water.’ So He said, ‘Come.’ And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.”

Matthew 14:28–29 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Belief always hits a moment where staying safe costs more than stepping out.

Peter did not walk on water because he felt confident. He stepped out because Jesus called him. The miracle did not happen in the boat. It happened when obedience met risk.

The boat is comfort. Control. What feels familiar. It is where belief feels safe, but limited. Stepping out does not promise ease, but it does make room for God to move.

Faith always requires leaving something behind. At some point, logic runs out and obedience takes over.

That moment shows what you really believe about Jesus.

You cannot experience the impossible while clinging to what feels safe. Faith moves when Jesus says come.

This is not about proving anything. It is about trusting Jesus enough to respond.

Believing again means stepping out of the boat.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Identify where you have been staying in the boat. Take one step today that only makes sense if Jesus shows up. Do not wait for certainty. Respond to His call.

DAY 16: BELIEVE FOR HEALING

Scripture

And these signs will follow those who believe: they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.

Mark 16:17-18 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

If we really believe Jesus is alive, then healing is not a fairy tale. It is part of the Kingdom.

A lot of believers believe God can heal, but we rarely position ourselves to believe for it. We keep healing theoretical. We celebrate stories, but hesitate when faith has to speak in real life.

But Jesus healed.

And then He told His followers to go and do the same.

This is not about hype or proving anything. This is about compassion and obedience. It is believing that God still touches bodies, restores minds, lifts burdens, and answers prayers.

Healing is not your responsibility. Obedience is.

God does not need your ability. He needs your availability.

You might feel nervous. That is normal. Faith is not the absence of fear. Faith is obedience in the presence of it. The Holy Spirit leads. You follow.

Believing again means believing that Jesus still heals today.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Go to a hospital parking lot, a clinic, or a place where healing is needed. Sit and pray for healing over people you will never meet. If you sense the Holy Spirit leading you to pray for someone directly, obey.

DAY 17: ASK FOR THE GIFT

Scripture

"If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Luke 11:13 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

A lot of believers love the idea of the Holy Spirit, but hesitate to ask Him to move personally. We celebrate spiritual gifts in others, but pull back when it comes to God working in us.

Jesus makes this clear.

God gives the Holy Spirit to those who ask.

Not to the qualified.

Not to the confident.

To the willing.

You do not earn spiritual gifts. You receive them.

God is not hesitant. He is generous.

The Holy Spirit does not work through a select few. He fills and empowers ordinary believers who are available. Spiritual gifts are not about spotlight or status. They are about serving people and building the Kingdom.

Believing again means trusting that God wants to work through you, not just around you.

Do not limit what God wants to do in and through your life.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Spend time today asking the Holy Spirit to activate a spiritual gift in your life. Ask boldly. Listen carefully. Write down what you sense and stay open to how God wants to use you.

DAY 18: COME INTO AGREEMENT

Scripture

“Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.”

Matthew 18:19 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Faith was never meant to be practiced alone.

Yes, personal faith matters. But agreement multiplies it. Scripture is clear. Unity invites God to move. When believers come together, courage rises and belief gets stronger.

A lot of people carry big prayers quietly. They believe, but they believe alone. Over time, isolation wears you down. Doubt gets louder. Faith gets heavy. That was never the design.

God wired us for community.

Agreement strengthens faith.

Unity invites God’s power.

When believers pray together, it is not just talking. It is alignment. It is standing together and saying, “God is able,” even when one of you is struggling.

Sometimes that means saying it out loud. Letting someone else believe with you until your faith catches up.

Faith grows faster in community.

You were never meant to believe alone.

Believing again means choosing unity over isolation.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Call or meet with another believer today. Share one impossible situation and pray together in agreement.

DAY 19: DON'T STOP HERE

Scripture

"Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us."

Hebrews 12:1 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Momentum is a gift, but it is also a test.

It is easy to start strong and then ease up. Easy to obey when faith feels fresh. That is usually when we say, "I think I am good right here." And then we stop just short of what God wants to do.

God never calls us to pause in obedience.

He calls us to keep moving.

Faith that is growing must be protected.

Distractions return. Comfort creeps in. Old patterns try to make a comeback like they were never evicted.

Faith does not coast. Faith continues.

The goal is not a moment with God, but a life shaped by obedience. The Holy Spirit stirs faith so it can carry you forward, not fade.

Believing again means refusing to settle.

What God started, He intends to finish.

Do not stop now.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Identify where God has already moved. Take one intentional step today. Obey again and act on what God started.

DAY 20: MOVE LIKE YOU BELIEVE

Scripture

"But someone will say, 'You have faith, and I have works.' Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works."

James 2:18 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

Real faith does not stay hidden.

Faith shows up in how you live and how you respond. It becomes visible. It leaves evidence. It takes steps that cannot be explained by comfort or coincidence.

Belief that never moves your feet is incomplete.

Scripture is clear. Faith and action were always meant to work together, not to earn anything, but to reveal what you truly believe.

Faith that moves can be seen.

Faith that moves proves it is alive.

At this point in the journey, belief should be pressing on you. It should be calling for expression and pushing you into obedience.

What you believe will eventually show up in how you live.

This is where courage matters. Acting in faith when no one is watching is powerful. Acting in faith when others can see is transformational.

Faith that stays hidden never reaches its full potential.

CHALLENGE FOR THE DAY

Act out of faith today. Serve someone. Pray for someone out loud. Share what God has been doing in you. Take an action that requires courage and points back to God, not you.

DAY 21: THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING

Scripture

“He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.”

Philippians 1:6 (NKJV)

Devotional Thought

This journey doesn't end today.

What God has been doing in you over these 21 days was never meant to stay in a devotional—it was meant to shape your everyday life.

Your faith has been stretched. Your obedience has been tested. Your belief has been awakened.

Now the question isn't what did God do?

It's what will you do with it?

Faith that's been stirred must be carried forward.

Momentum matters.

What you feed will grow. What you neglect will fade.

God doesn't awaken faith for a moment—He awakens it to shape a life.

This isn't the finish line. It's the foundation.

The same God who met you here will walk with you forward.

Don't shrink back. Don't return to old patterns.

This is just the beginning.

CHALLENGE

Keep believing. Keep moving. Keep obeying. Read your word. Pray. Follow the lead of the Holy Spirit.

You did it!

My prayer is that during these 21 days you found Jesus, experienced His presence, and truly feel like you belong to Him.

My hope is that you didn't just believe again for the impossible, but that you believed again in our God. Not as a distant idea, but as the living God who walks with you, speaks to you, and moves in your life.

This walk with Jesus will always have ups and downs. That's real. But now your faith has been strengthened. It's been established. And my prayer is that you walk forward with confidence, trusting Jesus more deeply than before.

I pray you believe again.
That you pray boldly.
That you trust fully.
That you see mountains move.

Keep going.
I'm proud of you.
